

OVERCOME THE INSTITUTIONAL IDENTITY CRISIS IN CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

UNIVERSITIES FACE ONGOING CHALLENGES in stewarding their institutional missions in a rapidly changing culture. In A Mission Held in Trust, a distinguished roster of administrators and educators from both Protestant and Catholic institutions provide wisdom on mission alignment in higher education. Their combined experience in leadership, formation, and ministry offers university and college cabinets and boards of trustees practical, hard-won wisdom they can trust.

In the midst of uncertainties and change, mission remains a sacred trust—inherited from predecessors and passed along to successors. A Mission Held in Trust is a unique ecumenical resource providing wisdom and encouragement for leaders seeking faithfulness in these vital vocations.
